

GUIDELINES TO SUPPORT REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION

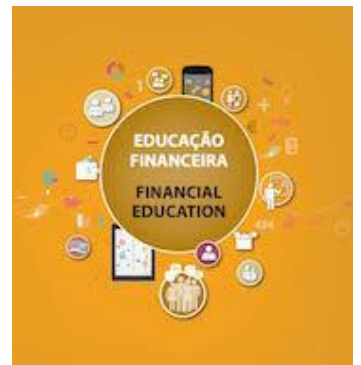

Financial education

Financial literacy is having educated and informed citizens on basic and useful financial topics and concepts for money management and family budgeting so they can make informed and sound decisions.

We propose some themes for reflection and discussion in student peers and groups.

- Take good care of your money
- Make Accounts to Life
- Financial autonomy
- Financial Ethics
- The essential and the superfluous
- Me and my money
- Conscious Consumption
- Money costs money
- Markets and Supermarkets
- Essential expenses
- "Cash in hand is gale."
- Fixed expenses and superfluous things
- Attention to consumerism
- Shopping in the Shopping Center
- Buy on impulse
- Luxury goods
- The Importance of Donation

Good work!
